

A Yes indeed, and it will show on here.

Q The bill amounts to what?

A $262.81.

Q And that amount is due and owing you?

A Yes, sir.

Q (The Court) What was the amount due at the time of his death?

A $262.81.

(Plaintiff offers in evidence Exhibit No. 2 to the Bill, being itemized account).

Q (Mr. Storm) Do you know whether or not Mr. Wetzel had any personal estate?

A Indeed I don't.

Q What real estate did Mr. Wetzel have at the time of his death?

A He had some property out there. Other than that I don't know. He had an automobile and real estate - several pieces of property.

Q Do you know anything about what property he had?

A No, I do not. I know he lived in a piece of property out there and had another piece of property too. I couldn't say. I know that he claimed to own a small piece of property out there, but I believe there were some other property he has. Not all of it Mr. Wetzel's property. That one piece of property he had in his name, I think.

Q Do you know from whom he purchased that?

A No, I don't, Mr. Storm. I drove by there, but I don't know who he purchased it from.

Q (The Court) What do you think it is worth?

A I don't know - $600 or $700, I guess; maybe $800. The house doesn't look to be so much, but pretty good land. The house is not bad; could be remodeled.

Q Where is this property located?
